

Dear Customer,

As an update, we are reaching out to our customers to communicate that Protopak Engineering is an essential business operating today and continue to be in operation during COVID-19 "Stay At Home" order in Illinois effective 3/21/2

Please email Jack Beaumont, jbeaumont@protopakengineering.com to receive a copy of the letter from the US Government stating we are an essential business.

For your service needs, please continue to contact us at sales@protopakengineering.com .

Our team is committed to support you during these challenging times.

Please rest assured that Protopak Engineering is following the CDC guidelines and the health of our employees and customers is paramount.

We appreciate your support.

Thank you for being a valued customer.

Best Regards,

Jack Beaumont
